

A new team... with a new dream.

Photos courtesy of Walter Cooper/US SAILING.

After only eight days sailing together, the Cronin Sailing Team (Carol Cronin, Kim Couranz, and Margaret Podlich) succeeded at our first goal: making the 2006 US Sailing Team.

Now we are moving ahead with plans to earn the single US berth for Ynglings at the 2008 Olympics.

We know how difficult our new goal will be to achieve. As the 2004 US representative to the Olympics in Athens, Carol trained over 350 days to achieve her dream. But we also know just how much potential we have as a team. With your help and the ongoing support of our coach, Paul Cronin, we can do it.

Preparing for the US Olympic Trials is a balancing act between sailing and fundraising, because a winning program requires substantial funding. The following summarizes our major expenses through March 2007:

budget highlights

New boat, trailer, and covers.....	$ 28,100
Travel.....	$ 7,450
Sails.....	$ 13,480
Food.....	$ 5,080
Housing.....	$ 1,400
Coaching.....	$ 19,370
Regatta expenses.....	$ 3,150
TOTAL.....	$78,030

We can do it... with your help.

By making a tax-deductible contribution to our Olympic effort you will become an important part of our team. Please help us at whatever level you can afford. Make your check payable to

Sailing Foundation of New York, and write

"Cronin" in the memo line. Mail it to:

Cronin Sailing Team
234 Narragansett Avenue
Jamestown, RI 02835

And thank you for your support!

A new team... with a new dream.

Photos courtesy of Walter Cooper/US SAILING.

After only eight days sailing together, the Cronin Sailing Team (Carol Cronin, Kim Couranz, and Margaret Podlich) succeeded at our first goal: making the 2006 US Sailing Team.

Now we are moving ahead with plans to earn the single US berth for Ynglings at the 2008 Olympics.

We know how difficult our new goal will be to achieve. As the 2004 US representative to the Olympics in Athens, Carol trained over 350 days to achieve her dream. But we also know just how much potential we have as a team. With your help and the ongoing support of our coach, Paul Cronin, we can do it.

Preparing for the US Olympic Trials is a balancing act between sailing and fundraising, because a winning program requires substantial funding. The following summarizes our major expenses through March 2007:

budget highlights

New boat, trailer, and covers.....	$ 28,100
Travel.....	$ 7,450
Sails.....	$ 13,480
Food.....	$ 5,080
Housing.....	$ 1,400
Coaching.....	$ 19,370
Regatta expenses.....	$ 3,150
TOTAL.....	$78,030

We can do it... with your help.

By making a tax-deductible contribution to our Olympic effort you will become an important part of our team. Please help us at whatever level you can afford. Make your check payable to

Sailing Foundation of New York, and write

"Cronin" in the memo line. Mail it to:

Cronin Sailing Team
234 Narragansett Avenue
Jamestown, RI 02835

And thank you for your support!

A new team... with a new dream.

Photos courtesy of Walter Cooper/US SAILING.

After only eight days sailing together, the Cronin Sailing Team (Carol Cronin, Kim Couranz, and Margaret Podlich) succeeded at our first goal: making the 2006 US Sailing Team.

Now we are moving ahead with plans to earn the single US berth for Ynglings at the 2008 Olympics.

We know how difficult our new goal will be to achieve. As the 2004 US representative to the Olympics in Athens, Carol trained over 350 days to achieve her dream. But we also know just how much potential we have as a team. With your help and the ongoing support of our coach, Paul Cronin, we can do it.

Preparing for the US Olympic Trials is a balancing act between sailing and fundraising, because a winning program requires substantial funding. The following summarizes our major expenses through March 2007:

budget highlights

New boat, trailer, and covers.....	$ 28,100
Travel.....	$ 7,450
Sails.....	$ 13,480
Food.....	$ 5,080
Housing.....	$ 1,400
Coaching.....	$ 19,370
Regatta expenses.....	$ 3,150
TOTAL.....	$78,030

We can do it... with your help.

By making a tax-deductible contribution to our Olympic effort you will become an important part of our team. Please help us at whatever level you can afford. Make your check payable to

Sailing Foundation of New York, and write

"Cronin" in the memo line. Mail it to:

Cronin Sailing Team
234 Narragansett Avenue
Jamestown, RI 02835

And thank you for your support!

